

JAMES MONTGOMERIE HONOUR AWARD

An award given to a person who promotes equality of all citizens.

Deadline for Nominations is Friday, June 30, 2017

The James Montgomerie Honour Award was established in memory of Jim Montgomerie, an educator and past president of Community Living Ontario. It is given to an individual to recognize their efforts in furthering the goals of community living for all people.

Who is eligible?

This award is presented annually to a person who has an intellectual disability who demonstrates leadership by:

- Promoting the equality of people
- Speaking up publicly or helping others speak up
- Acting in a way that teaches others about the abilities and strengths of individuals
- Actively participating on committees and promoting the goals of inclusion and citizenship.

How recipients are chosen?

A selection panel is made up of members of the Community Living Ontario Awards Committee.
