

The Newsletter Award

This completion recognizes the outstanding efforts of volunteers and staff in writing and signing local newsletters that foster good communication among members of local associations and their communities.

Deadline for Entries is Friday, June 30, 2017

Category 1 – Overall Newsletter or E-newsletter

Judging will be based on:

- Quality of writing
- Originality and content of entire newsletter
- Sensitivity to language and labeling of people, and
- Consistency with Community Living Ontario's vision.

The newsletter should report on more than the organization's activities and should also speak to and educate the broader community about issues that are important to people and/or related to an intellectual disability.

To enter, submit three consecutive issues of your newsletter published the previous calendar year.

Category 2 – Individual Article

Judging of an individual article will be based on:

- Content that demonstrates a person's successful inclusion in their community and shows how a person contributes and/or participates meaningfully. This may include but is not limited to education, employment, recreation or home life.
- Quality of writing; and
- Demonstrated sensitivity to language and labeling of people.

To enter, submit one original version of an article published the previous calendar year.
